Detail of VAANA Mural

The Auckland Peace Heritage Walk was launched during the Auckland Heritage Festival in 2009 as part of the World March for Peace and Non-Violence. This year the Walk is self-guided, starting at two places simultaneously and ending at QEII Square with a human peace sign.

Brochures provided at the starting points. Cyclists & runners welcome.

Organized by Civic Trust Auckland together with the United Nations Association of NZ (Northern Region Branch)
