

Shopping

High fashion sits alongside retro and street-wear styles. Home decor from Aotearoa, the Pacific and beyond; from collectable to kitsch and the revival of hand craft in its 21st century incarnation. Eclectic inhabitants add colour and culture.

Tiny Space Vintage Store

Sept & Oct: All Garments

Buy-One-Get-One FREE

and 10% off everything else!

22b Cross Street

Phone 302 0163, tinyspace.co.nz

Tapa Wedding Dress

On display from 9 Sept

Buana Satu, 229 K Road

Renowned fashion and textile designer Annie Bonza, below left, has created a contemporary tapa wedding dress in collaboration with Tongan craftswoman Lolohea Tupouniua, above left.

The dress will be displayed in one of New Zealand's best known gift stores selling beautiful souvenirs, hand-crafted jewellery and décor by Maori and Pacific artists and Tongan organic coffee and vanilla.

Jade Carving

FREE WORKSHOPS

Fridays at 2pm for 1 hour

9 Sept-21 Oct

Learn how to drill a jade pebble and thread it with a handmade flax cord, and it's yours FREE to take home.

Ernesto Orvalle is a Master Goldsmith & Sculptor from Colombia. His connection with pounamu (NZ Jade or greenstone) started while working with a Maori sculptor and moko artist.

Most of the jade he uses is from the Arahura and Marsden Rivers in the South Island.

Bridge Gallery Studio

Beresford Square

Phone 309 2202

